DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS

WHERE THE LIVING DANCE WITH THE DEAD,
AND NOBODY LEAVES THE SAME.

EN FUEGO

THE FIRE'S JUST GETTING STARTED

MONDAY 27 — WEDNESDAY 29 OCTOBER

Timing: 6pm – 1am
Menu: À La Carte

The week begins with a whisper from the spirits and ends with fire in your glass. The music flares, the kitchen sizzles, and every table glows with mischief. Wear your boldest look, the kind that makes La Catrina herself jealous, and the night might just reward you.

PRIZES

- A bucket of cold cervezas for your next visit
- AED 200 arcade credit to keep the fiesta alive at Wavehouse
- A bowling session made for bragging rights

An artistic illustration of two women dressed as Catrinas for Halloween. They have white face paint with intricate black and red designs around their eyes and mouths. They are wearing large orange marigold flowers in their dark hair. The woman on the left is holding a green drink with a lime wedge, and the woman on the right is holding a margarita glass. The background is a warm, painterly scene with a street lamp and more flowers.
