At Palmilla Golf Club

SET A COURSE FOR THE OCEAN'S EDGE

Equally renowned for its brilliant vistas as it is for its thrilling, unrivaled play, ocean-adjacent Palmilla Golf Club is Los Cabos' premier destination for visiting pros and avid enthusiasts alike. Eminently distinguished as the first Jack Nicklaus Signature course in all of Latin America, the club's unique 27-hole design offers three distinct 18-hole combinations, winding their way from cliff-top's edge through desert arroyo, then down to the sparkling sea and sands below.

Arroyo Course

Twisting its way through a calming desert landscape, this acclaimed 'nine' winds past giant centuries-old cardón cati, juxtaposed against the sweeping Sea of Cortez vistas below. The course is home to native quail, roadrunners and hawk, along with formidable doglegs and lengthy forced carries, all which converge to create the most thrill-inducing holes in all of Los Cabos.

Mountain Course

Here, nine flawless canyon greens are framed by majestic mountains rising on either side, capped by the brilliant blue sky above. Many have called the course's legendary fifth hole, "one of the greatest par-fours in the world." Others point to the "amen corner" of holes four through six, where one approach leaps the canyon to a green below, and a shimmering reservoir adds a string of daring water challenges.
